Max A. Beuter recently entered comlaint with the Commissioners of an exessive charge for repairing the roadway over plumber's cuts made by him at 525 Flint Street, Brightwood Park. Mr. Beuter claimed that the area of the repairs included in his bill were of larger measgrement than the real cuts. The matter was referred to the surface divis the Engineer Department, and, after investigation, C. B. Hunt, the Computing vestigation, C. B. Hunt, the Computing Engineer, reported:

"The essence of difference in this case lies in the width of the trench which had to be repaired, the plumber claiming that the ditch was two feet wide in one case and eighteen inches wide in another, while the repair of the suut was two feet wide and necessarily soi it is not believed to be practicable to make a sewer trench to a depth necessary to reach a sewer with a width of only eighteen inches. From whatever cause the width repaired by the District was the least that it is practicable to repair and make proper treatment. I recommend that the teomplainant be advised that a modification in this case is not practicable."

As bearing out this view it was report-

As bearing out this view it was reported by the inspector who recently visited the spot that it would be necessary to make slight additional repairs in the immediate future owing to the settling of the ditches, incurring additional expense on the part of the District.

Richard E. Shipp, of 1112 Columbia Building, recently addressed the Commis-sioners requesting that the improvement of Delaware Avenue from H Street to Florida Avenue mortheast be proceeded with immediately. He stated that his understanding of the law covering the mat-ter was mandatory and did not permit of any change in the schedule as contemplated by the Commissioners. In reply to Dr. Shipp, the Commissioners today said:

"It has always been the interpretation of the law in the case that the word practicable applies to the entire schedule, and the Commissioners do not consider it advisable to expend public momenty in making an improvement which must be destroyed within a year or two and thus cause the money to be wasted. The plan adpoted by the Commissioners of leaving streets at the head of the list until the work can be economically done was explained to Congress and was considered satisfactory to it. This has been done in another case in the southeastern section of the city, and had this not been understood between the Commissioners and Congress, the order of the schedule would plated by the Commissioners. In reply Sixteenth Street and Columbia Road were extended under act No. 182 approved June 5, 1900, the award being made September 27, 1990, and confirmed Juny 3, 1890, the damages awarded were $181,858, and the benefits assessed were $20,929.
